OBLIGATION OF CENTENNIAL FOOT AND ANKLE:

We are required by law to:

Maintain the privacy of protected health information (PHI)

Give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices regarding health information on the patient

Follow the terms of our notice that is currently in effect

This notice explains your rights and our legal obligations regarding the privacy of PHI. Protected Health information (PHI) is information that individually identifies you. It may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff, another health care provider, your health plan, your employer, or a healthcare clearing house that relates to (1) your past, present, or future physical conditions, (2) the provisions of health care to you, or (3) the past, present, or future payment for your health care.

HOW CENTENNIAL FOOT AND ANKLE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION:

FOR TREATMENT: We may use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we may disclose your PHI to doctors, nurses, technicians, or the personnel, including people outside our office who are involved in your medical care and need the information to provide you with medical care.

FOR PAYMENT: We may use and disclose your PHI to enable us or others to bill and receive payment from you, and insurance company or a third party for the treatments and services you received. For example, we may give your health plan information about you so that they will pay for your treatment.

FOR HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use your PHI for health care operation purposes. These uses and disclosures are necessary to make sure all of our patients receive quality care and to operate and manage our office. For example, we may use and disclose information to make sure the podiatry care you receive is of the highest quality. We also may share information with other entities that have a relationship with you (for example, your health plan) for their health care operation activities.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS, TREATMENT ALTERNATIVES, HEALTH RELATED BENEFITS AND SERVICES: We may use and disclose your PHI to contact you to remind you that you have a scheduled medical appointment with us. We also may use and disclose PHI to tell you about treatment alternatives or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN YOUR CARE OR IN PAYMENT FOR YOUR CARE: When appropriate we may share Health Information with a person who is involved in your medical care or payment for your care, such as your family or a close friend. We also may notify your family about your location or general condition or disclose such information to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort.

AS REQUIRED BY LAW: We will disclose PHI about you when required to do so in the following situations without authorization. These situations include: as required by law, public health issues as required by law, communicable diseases, health oversight, abuse or neglect, food and drug administration requirements, legal proceedings, law enforcement, coroners, funeral directors, organ donation, research, criminal activity, military activity and national security, workers compensation, inmates, and other required uses and disclosures. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you upon your request. Under the law, we must also disclose your PHI when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements under Section 164.500.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT REQUIRE YOUR AUTHORIZATION
